

MR. BLAINE'S HEALTH.

It is Greatly Improved—Expected to Speak Next Week.

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Oct. 13.—A reporter was received by Mr. Blaine during the day.

His health being the first topic touched on, Mr. Blaine said: "I have quite recovered from the effects of my long railroad ride, and as I have been idle all summer, I cannot but regard with pleasure the ease with which I have traveled 500 miles."

His voice as he spoke was strong and steady, and his smile indicative of profound satisfaction.

Turning to the subject of politics, he said:

"My friends know that I am no longer a public man in any sense of the word, and any interference from me would seem uncalled for. There is no reason why I should tell Republicans to do their duty nor to describe that duty to them, for they know it as well as I, and they will do it."

"On all political subjects, I have only to say what I have already said in my published letter to Mr. Munley. I see nothing to add. My health has prevented me so far from taking any active part in the campaign, and I have not considered the subject of entering the field as a speaker at this time."

On Tuesday night next, the Republicans of White Plains will hold a mass meeting, which will be addressed by Mr. Reid, Warren Miller and General Horace Porter. Mr. Blaine will also be present at this meeting and probably make a short address, if he is in White Plains on that night.

ATTRACTED A CROWD.

Opening of Deacon's Suit Against His Faithless Wife.

GRASS, FRISCO, Oct. 13.—The action of Mr. Edward Parker Deacon against his wife began here to-day. The trial is taken to prove criminality on the part of the defendant in order that the plaintiff can apply for a divorce. The great interest is manifested in the case here, and at 7 o'clock this morning the doors of the court house were besieged by a large crowd of people, all eager to gain admission.

At 8:30 o'clock the doors were opened and the crowd made a rush for the seats. In a few minutes every available inch of space was occupied, and many of the crowd of would-be listeners found that they would not be able to obtain standing room where they could hear any of the proceedings. Their interest of curiosity was so deep, however, that they did not give up the idea of gratifying it, and they waited outside the court house in the hope that they would be admitted later in the day.

Maitre Sonange, Mr. Deacon's counsel, was unavoidably absent, and his place was taken by Mr. Frank Platteau, an advocate from Nice. Counsel for Mrs. Deacon interposed a plan to dismiss the suit on the ground that in a certain letter Deacon had implied an intention of abandonment. The judges retired to consider this point, and at 12:30 p. m. returned and announced their decision that the wife had no grounds upon which to stop the proceedings, as her interpretation of the letter was not justified. The court having decided that it had jurisdiction in the case, took a recess until 3 o'clock this afternoon.

A PLUCKY SHERIFF.

He Disperses a Mob That Had Gathered to Lynch a Negro.

SEDALIA, Mo., Oct. 14.—William Simms, colored, made an attempt last night to assault Miss Fannie Pruber, a young white woman who keeps house for her brother. Her cries brought help, and after a desperate struggle the negro was arrested and jailed.

During the night a mob of nearly 300 men gathered in the northern part of the city, and it was only because of the coolness and determination of Sheriff Smith that Sims did not adorn a telegraph pole, at the end of a rope; this morning, when the mob arrived at the jail, about 1 o'clock this morning, they demanded the surrender of Sims, but Sheriff Smith and a handful of men stepped into the front yard of the jail, and the sheriff, with drawn weapon, declined to comply with the request.

The weapons in the hands of the sheriff and others had an awing effect, and at 1:15 Major A. W. Weisenberg, who had been attracted to the scene by the noise and the crowd, moved that "the meeting adjourn," and when the motion was put it was carried by a large majority, after which the mob slowly dispersed.

THINK IT A MIRACLE.

Excitement Among People Over a Picture that Strangely Appears.

CANTON, MISS., Oct. 13.—Since the action of Bishop Cotter in ridiculing the power of the mysterious picture in the spire of the church here, there has been a little abatement in the excitement. Pilgrims are forbidden the grounds, but still the visits are so numerous that it was finally decided to move the glass. It has already been told that this glass, when viewed from any other point than the ground, was perfectly plain. When removed it was merely an ordinary pane of glass. A new pane was procured from the stock of a glazier and placed in the spire. The moment it was in place a loud shout went up from the crowd of people below. There was the same picture that had appeared in the old glass. The form of the virgin with the infant Jesus in her arms was plainly describable. Nothing short of a bull from the Vatican would now convince the people of Canton that they are now daily viewing a miracle.

A Crossing Accident.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 13.—A special to the Inquirer from Shamokin, Pa., says a carriage containing A. D. Maxwell, the two Misses Taylor and Miss Kate Houghawent was returning from Tre-

A DREADFUL SCOURGE.

The Case of Mr. Palmer—Pneumonia Carried Him Off Suddenly—Everyone Should Know the Symptoms and be on Guard.

Mr. Wilton R. Palmer, of New York City, left a circle of friends one afternoon recently, and received their congratulations upon his bright and vigorous appearance. The evening he left a sticking in the throat, a slight pain across the chest, a chilly sensation, and he coughed once or twice. The next day his nostrils were inflamed, his throat sore, his chest pained him, his bones ached and he felt sore all over. The day following he was in bed, with physicians shaking their heads, and the third day he was dead from pneumonia, which he failed to take in time.

There are ten thousand men and women in America to-day in the same condition as Mr. Palmer when leaving his friends, but they do not know it. The slightest appearance of the symptoms above named should strike terror to any man or woman. A sudden chill means the beginning of pneumonia; aches and pains throughout the body are the first symptoms. It is necessary to bring about a reaction at once. How, then, is the best way of bringing about a reaction? Ask any physician and he will tell you to use pure whiskey. No matter how pointed any one's nose, pure whiskey at such a time is a necessity, but unfortunately there are few pure whiskeys in the world, and in fact there is but one that has received the absolute endorsement of physicians, chemists and the highest authorities, and that is Duffy's Pure Malt. This remarkable whiskey, which is sold by all first-class druggists and grocers, will absolutely check the first symptoms of pneumonia, while at the same time it is certain to build up the wasted system. It deserves to be kept in every household, not only to be used in cases of emergency, but to assist in prolonging life and bringing health and happiness.

BELLARE.

All Sorts of Local News and Gossip from the Glass City.

The various societies and representatives of the schools have organized for the Columbian Day celebration with E. J. Stegar as president, George W. King secretary, David Walker vice-president and C. Rumbach treasurer. A parade through the principal streets will be one of the features, with George E. Morgan as chief marshal and John Strobel and Carl Dorer as assistants. The committee to arrange programme for afternoon and evening is E. T. Jones, C. Rumbach, D. Walker, Charles Correll and Dr. Porterfield. This committee will also select the line of march. Messrs. E. J. Stegar, George W. King, William Lappart, John Seabrooks and David Walker were made executive committee to spend the money and make all arrangements not otherwise provided for.

There is a peculiar lawsuit over a dead and a living horse in this city. Mark Smith, ex-policeman, wanted to trade horses with W. H. Campbell and the affair got so far along that Campbell was in possession of Smith's horse and the latter in possession of Campbell's. Smith says the trade was consummated, but the horse Campbell got from Smith died in the stable Monday night and he says it was Smith's horse that died. This is the question now being tried to a jury before Squire Mason. Smith took the living horse over into West Virginia to prevent Campbell's replevining it.

The insurance men are progressing nicely in the adjustment of the loss on the lantern globe works so far, though the adjusters here will not recognize what they term "wild cat" companies in fixing up the loss. The companies referred to are those that do not comply with the Ohio laws and only write such policies as they are solicited to write, and have no agents doing business in Ohio.

The suit of the county commissioners against W. J. Berry, ex-commissioner, for money alleged to have been wrongfully paid by over-measurements of stone work under his supervision, has been regularly filed in the common pleas court. There are three counts in the petition where fraudulent measurements are charged, and the suit has excited general interest throughout the county.

The Gravel Hill reading room will be formally opened for the season to-morrow evening. There will be music and an address by John A. Gallahue and perhaps others. This has proven to be one of the best institutions in the city and there ought to be one in the central part of the city, but philanthropists are scarce in this city.

Mrs. Lucinda J. Anderson, mother of James F. Anderson, the lawyer and editor and proprietor of the Independent, died at her home just west of town yesterday in the 82nd year of her age. She was an excellent woman and had been a member of the United Presbyterian church for fifty-seven years.

William Parks attended the wedding of Rev. W. J. Wright, of Cincinnati, and Miss Bessie Harris, at the bride's home, in Flushing, yesterday. The bride is a sister of Mrs. Howard Kirk, deputy county treasurer.

Miss Bessie Hoge, formerly of this city, sailed yesterday with Bishop Thoburn and wife for India, where she will devote her future life to missionary work.

The non-partisan W. C. T. U. meets this afternoon at the home of Miss Lizzie Cummins, on Gravel Hill.

Mrs. H. Roemer is taking in the Pittsburgh Exposition this week.

The Women's Relief Corps meets this evening.
